Florida Public Records Statutes (FS 119.071) Amended - Protected Addresses

The Florida Public Records Exemptions Statute, FS 119.071, has been amended to expand exemptions from public records requirements. As a result, exempt (aka confidential) accounts and parcels have been completely redacted from our website and all available data sets. In addition, the Citrus County Property Appraiser mapping site has been modified to accommodate the statutory change.

Florida Senate Bill 248, which took effect on July 1, 2019, amends section 119.071(4)(d), FS, regarding agency personnel information that is exempt from public disclosure, to define the term "home addresses" for purposes of public records exemptions for personal identifying and location information of agency personnel and their families.

Persons eligible for making a Public Records Exemption Request must visit one of our offices, produce personal identification and sign a request form. Such person may make a separate request to Release Information on a Protected Address by submitting a notarized written release request which specifies the information to be released, and the party who is authorized to receive the information.
